MOU Template — BOLTE Pre-Incorporation (Contractual + Future Conversion)

TEMPLATE ONLY — Nigerian law. Requires lawyer review before signing. Fill all [TBD].

Parties: (1) Abdullahi Garba, (2) Essien Frances (Co-founders), (3)–(7) [Member names, addresses, IDs].

1. Purpose: Collaborate as BOLTE per Canon (docs/01-canon/) to research/engineer/deploy indigenous technologies, flagship AeroPulse-NG, compete at NDAIE 2026.

2. Term: From [date] until incorporation as Ltd or termination by 2/3 majority + both founders, with 30-day notice.

3. Contributions: Founders: direction, architecture, ops. Members: assigned subsystems/ops per 05-people/. All assign IP per IP Assignment.

4. Confidentiality: Mutual NDA terms incorporated; survives exit 3 years (trade secrets 5 years or per NDA).

5. IP: All BOLTE work product owned by the collective (held in trust by founders pre-incorporation), inventors attributed. No filing/disclosure without founders' approval.

6. Money: 50% of net gains to treasury; distributions per 07-equity/equity-model.md (10/10 + 7.5/7.5/5/5/5 default). Treasurer ledgers monthly. Spending > [₦ TBD] needs both founders.

7. Decisions: Day-to-day by role owners; Canon/IP/partnerships/spending/public entries need both founders. Deadlock → mediation in Lagos, then arbitration per Arbitration and Mediation Act 2023.

8. Future conversion: On CAC incorporation, parties negotiate in good faith to convert profit percentages into shareholding baseline (treasury → company reserves/unissued shares). No automatic conversion; requires shareholders agreement + CAC filings.

9. Exit/removal: Pro-rata settlement, return of materials, surviving confidentiality + IP. Misconduct → removal + forfeiture of pending amounts.

10. Governing law: Federal Republic of Nigeria. Disputes: mediation → arbitration (Lagos seat).

Signatures + dates + witness. Attach: Code of Conduct, NDA, IP Assignment, cap-table.
